

Stacey Mason, MA, LPC

Counselor/Mental Health Therapist
GreenPathClinic

Stacey Matson is a licensed professional counselor with over 30 years of experience in counseling and overseeing other professionals in the field. She has dedicated herself to providing support and guidance to those who face a wide array of challenges- with her expertise lying in assisting individuals with developmental disabilities and behavioral issues. Stacey utilizes a range of therapeutic approaches to best address the concerns of her clients, ranging anywhere between young children to college-age adults and couples.

Stacey specializes in addressing anxiety, self-esteem building, depression, and relationship issues beyond her skills in addressing developmental disabilities. She works with adults and couples just as well as she works with younger clients, and is committed to helping her clients navigate their personal journeys towards improving well-being and a greater sense of fulfillment.

With her wealth of experience and passionate approach, Stacey is able to provide the comprehensive counseling that is needed to overcome any challenges her clients may face.
